(to which oral answers were given)

INCLUDING THE CIVIL JUDGES COURT, MYSORE, AS A SUBORDINATE JUDGE'S COURT FOR KOLLEGAL AREA UNDER THE MADRAS CIVIL COURTS ACT.

*Q.—445. Sri G. VENKATAI GOWDA (Palaiyam).—

Will the Government be pleased to state :—

(a) whether the District Court at Mysore is notified as one of the Courts under Section 31 of Madras Civil Courts Act for Kollegal Taluk ;

(b) whether the Civil Judge's Court at Mysore is recognised as one of the Subordinate Courts under the Madras Civil Courts Act in respect of Kollegal Taluk ;

(c) whether it has come to the notice of the Government that appeals are being transferred from the District Court at Mysore to the Civil Judge's Court, Mysore, for disposal ;

(d) whether they intend to include the Civil Judge's Court, Mysore, as a Subordinate Judge's Court for Kollegal area under the Madras Civil Courts Act ?

A.—Sri T. SUBRAMANYA (Minister for Development and Local Self-Government) [on behalf of Sri H. M. CHANNABASAPPA (Minister for Home)].—

(a) Yes.

(b) The matter is sub judice.

(c) Yes.

(d) A decision will be taken after the case is decided in the Court.

Sri G. VENKATAI GOWDA.—My question at (b) was whether the Kollegal Taluk comes under the jurisdiction of the Mysore Civil Judge's Court, Mysore. This is a question of fact and the answer is that the matter is subjudice.

†Sri T. SUBRAMANYA.—Under the Madras Civil Courts Act, the District Judges Court is notified as one which is entitled to entertain appeals. He has transferred certain appeals to the Subordinate Judges Court. When this question was raised the Subordinate Judge assumed jurisdiction and that matter is in appeal. Since that matter is pending before the High Court, we cannot answer the question now.

Sri G. VENKATAI GOWDA.—I am asking whether the Civil Judges Court has jurisdiction or not. I want to know as a matter of fact whether this Civil Court is recognised as one of the subordinate courts.

Sri T. SUBRAMANYA.—Civil Judges, under the Madras Civil Courts Act, have not yet been notified by us.

Sri G. VENKATAI GOWDA.—Will it not be desirable to avoid all these complications recongise the civil courts also as subordinate courts.

Sri T. SUBRAMANYA.—We are awaiting the decision of the High Court on this matter.

Sri G. VENKATAI GOWDA.—Will the Government take steps at least now to bring about uniformity in respect of the civil courts Act so as to enable it to be applicable to the entire State of Mysore.

Sri T. SUBRAMANYA.—Uniformity will be brought about.
